Maytas Infra bags 2 prestigious power projects worth Rs. 480 crores from Mahavitaran

Hyderabad, September 22, 2008: Maytas Infra Limited, a Hyderabad based construction and infrastructure development Company today announced that it has bagged two orders totaling to Rs.480.67 crores for electrification of Beed & Nanded districts of Lathur Zone, and Ahmednagar district of Nashik Zone from MSEDCL under 'Infrastructure Development Plan'.

The first order for Rs. 214.77 crores is from MSEDCL under Mahavitaran, Infra Plan in Beed & Nanded Districts of Lathur Zone.

The second order for Rs. 265.9 crores is from MSEDCL under Mahavitaran, Infra Plan in Ahmed Nagar District of Nasik Zone.

The scope of work for both the packages includes construction of:

- 33/11 kV Substations
- 33/11 kV LT Transmission Lines
- Extension of new Distribution Lines + RMUs and related works

"Rural Electrification is a key element in country's economic development and we are elated to contribute to the same through these projects. This is a significant deal for Maytas Infra and clearly heralds us as a major force to reckon with in the power sector. Maytas Infra looks forward to contributing to increased availability of electricity for accelerated growth and for enrichment of quality of life in rural and semi-urban areas. We are confident of executing this project on schedule and with high standards of safety and environmental norms" said Mr. PK Madhav, CEO, Maytas Infra.
